

Brown algae extract Ecklonia, spray fertiliser (Ecklonia spp.)

Description:

Fermented brown algae extract from Ecklonia species with naturally occurring amino acids, proteins and trace elements for dipping and foliar treatment. For increased fine root formation, winter hardiness and nutrient uptake. For strawberries, potatoes, oilseeds, fruit growing, viticulture.

Sensory characteristics:

- Appearance: dark brown, homogeneous liquid
- Colour: dark brown, only slightly transparent
- Consistency: medium viscosity, like oil

Specification: total nitrogen: 11.8%, organic matter: 35.1%, pH-value (1% solution 6.9-7.1), specific weight 1.19 kg/l

Origin: Germany

Miscibility: Do not mix with products containing copper. The use of a wetting/adhesive agent is recommended

Article in assortment:

ALGENLADEN Brown Algae Extract Ecklonia, Spray Fertiliser (AAP00893).